DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in response to the correspondence filed on 06/ 12/2007.
2. The applicant elected claims 9-16 and 20-25 without traverse in response to the previous election/ election requirement.
3. Claims 9-16 and 20-25 are now pending in the application.
4. Claims 9-16 and 20-25 have been rejected.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

5. Claims 11-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

In particularly, claims 11 and 12 recite the limitations such as “plurality of decryption devices” respective to plurality of pixels, however, NOWHERE in the specification, such “plurality of decryption devices” respective to plurality or each pixels are described. Therefore, it is not clear what actually meant by “the decryption device is a plurality of decryption devices” or “the decryption devices ...respective one of the pixels”.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

6. Claims 9-10, 13-16, 20-25 are rejected under 35 USC 102 (e) as being anticipated by Hayashi (US 2004/0081334 A1).

Regarding claim 9, Hayashi teaches a digital picture display device comprising:
a plurality of pixel elements arranged in an array and adapted to display picture information (Par [0003], [0049], [0055]; Fig 2A, 3A; arrangements/ storing of the image elements); and at least one decryption device adapted to decrypt picture information for at least a first portion of the pixel elements with a first decryption key and to decrypt picture information for at least a second portion of the pixel elements with a second decryption key (Par [0006]-[0008], [0015], [0143]-[0144]; claims 13-14; decryption key respective to each image tile).

Regarding claim 20, Hayashi teaches a method for receiving encrypted picture information, comprising:

providing a display device having a plurality of pixels organized into an array and adapted to display picture information (Par [0003], [0049], [0055]; Fig 2A, 3A; arrangements/ storing of the image elements);

receiving a data stream of digital picture information (Par [0019], [0049], [0055]; data stream);

decrypting the data stream of digital picture information with a plurality of the encryption keys to obtain a plurality of portions of picture information for each respective one of the plurality of encryption keys (Par [0006]-[0008], [0015], [0143]-[0144]; claims 13-14; decryption key respective to each image tile); and dispatching each of the plurality of portions to respective ones of a plurality of different pixel groups in the array (Par [0008]-[0014], [0015], [0143]-[0144]; encoding/ decoding group of tiles).

Regarding claim 10, Hayashi teaches the digital picture display device according to claim 9, wherein: the first portion is a first single pixel element; and the second portion is a second single pixel element; wherein the decryption device is adapted to decrypt picture information for each of the pixel elements with a different decryption key (Par [0006]-[0008], [0015], [0143]-[0144]; claims 13-14).

Regarding claim 13, Hayashi teaches the digital picture display device according to claim 9, wherein the first portion is a first plurality of pixels and the second portion is a second plurality of pixels (Par [0006]-[0008], [0015], [0143]).

Regarding claim 14, Hayashi teaches the digital picture display device according to claim 13, wherein the decryption device is a single component that decrypts the first portion with the first decryption key and decrypts the second portion with the second decryption key (Par [0006]-[0008], [0015], [0143]).

Regarding claim 15, Hayashi teaches the digital picture display device further comprising: pixel logic adapted to receive decrypted picture information for the first portion from the decryption device and to receive decrypted picture information for the second portion from the decryption device and to dispatch the picture information for the first portion of pixel elements to the decryption device and to dispatch the picture information for the second portion to the second portion of pixel elements to the decryption device (Par [0006]-[0008], [0015], [0143]).

Regarding claim 23, Hayashi teaches a micro electronic device, comprising: an array of display pixels collectively configured to display visible images; and a plurality of decryption logic components, each decryption logic component associated with different group of the display pixels and configured to decrypt video data directed to the respective group of display pixels (Par [0003], [0008]-[0014], [0015]).

Regarding claims 21-22, they recite the limitations of claims 9-10 and 20, therefore, they are rejected applying as above rejecting claims 9-10, 20.

Regarding claims 24-25, they recite the limitations of claims 9-10, 20 and 23, therefore, they are rejected applying as above rejecting claims 9-10, 20 and 23.

Conclusion

7. A shortened statutory period for response to this action is set to expire in 3 (Three) months and 0 (Zero) days from the mailing date of this letter. Failure to respond within the period for response will result in ABANDONMENT of the application (see 35 U.S.C 133, M.P.E.P 710.02(b)).
